

A N
A D D R E S S
T O T H E
L I V E R Y.

TH E Political Conduct of a Candidate is most worthy of your Attention, at this important Crisis, when you are on the Point of conferring your Suffrages for the Purpose of obtaining a faithful Representation of you in Parliament. Examine strictly into the Conduct of such Candidates, as in the late Session of Parliament afforded a Testimony of their Political Principles. Reward the Conduct of those, who, upon the late Attempt to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the East-India Company, and to establish a Power unknown to the Constitution of this Country, stood up the steady Advocates for your Rights; and by an unremitted Perseverance, exposed the Evil Designs of a desperate Faction.

Of this Description there are two of your Candidates:

Sir Watkin Lewes,

A N D

Mr. Samuel Smith, Jun.

They have given uniformly in the late Parliament, a steady Support to the Administration in which you repose a Confidence; and by such a Conduct, seem to have established a superior Claim to YOUR SUPPORT.

The active Zeal of these Candidates, in opposition to the India Bill, and the late Attempts of a dangerous Faction, cannot at this important Season be obliterated, but must point them out as Objects truly worthy of a distinguished Confidence.

An old Liveryman.

1782